

The conference

E-commerce - manage the accounting and tax aspects!

PRESENTATION

The accounting and taxation of e-commerce comply with the new economic rules of the 21st century. Development of Internet commerce sites, online payment, collaborative economy, European and international taxation... e-traders are shaking up the ways things are done!

The multiple roles of the numbers expert are more than ever essential for these entrepreneurs, in this environment undergoing a complete transformation.

Make the most of this conference to adopt the new rules of this expanding sector!

INTERESTS & OBJECTIVES

- Learn about the specific accounting and taxation features of e-commerce
- Translate the particular features of this new economic model from an accounting and taxation point of view
- Understand the main accounting and tax rules to be mastered to comply with the new requirements of e-commerce customers

POINTS DISCUSSED

- Specific features of the economic model of e-commerce
- Accounting techniques
- Accounting of online sales in practice
- Evaluation and accounting of the Internet site
- Tax techniques

SPEAKERS

Cyril Degrilart
chartered accountant

Jean-Pierre Riquet
chartered accountant